

LAGUNA LODGE ECO-RESORT & NATURE RESERVE

NO. 1 TZANTIZOTZ, SANTA CRUZ LA LAGUNA, LAKE ATITLÁN, SOLOLÁ

Tel: +502 7823 2529 Cell: +502 5762 6753

Web: www.johansens.com/lagunalodge E-mail: info@lagunalodgeatitlan.com

Our inspector loved: The romantic atmosphere, chic décor and magnificent view of Lake Atitlán and surrounding volcanoes.

Price Guide: (including breakfast, high tea and private boat transportation to and from Panajachel, excluding 22% taxes) suites U.S.$225-U.S.$290

Attractions: 100-acre Nature Reserve with Trails, Bird-Watching, Trekking, Swimming, Kayaking, Rappelling and Cliff Jumping, on-site; San Juan La Laguna Indigenous Community Tour and San Pedro Volcano, 25-min boat ride; Santiago Traditional Village, 35-min boat ride

Towns/Cities: Panajachel, 15-min boat ride; Santa Cruz La Laguna, 20-min walk; San Juan La Laguna and San Pedro La Laguna, 25-min boat ride; Santiago, 35-min boat ride

Airports: Guatemala City Airport, 93 miles

Located on the shore of the mystical Lake Atitlán, this eco-resort is inspired by nature and offers a true getaway from the real world. The spacious suites all look out to stunning views of the lake and mountains, with design influenced by the Mayan culture. Relax in the gardens or in the Jacuzzi, or choose one of the body treatments from the spa menu. Zotz Restaurant serves an array of eco-cuisine options from its lake-front setting with stunning views of the flora and fauna. Enjoy the miles of trails and calm kayaking on the lake within the nature reserve or take to the rock cliffs for more adventurous pursuits such as climbing, rappelling and cliff diving.