HIDDEN SANCTUARY

The Laguna Lodge Eco Resort and Nature Reserve is a beautiful luxury resort nestled in Lake Atitlan, Guatemala. It is immersed within a 100-acre nature reserve and surrounded by mountains and volcanoes. The lodge is committed to all aspects of sustainability, using volcanic stone, adobe, wood, and palm as materials to build its resort. The resort supports renewable energy, and observes proper waste management.

TRANQUIL RETREAT

The SPA, located on the Solarium Terrace of Hotel Can Alomar, is a space designed for wellbeing and health. It offers a wide range of treatments using Gaia natural cosmetics, grown organically on a farm in the Tramuntana mountains. Its signature treatment is the Aromatherapy Massage, which combines relaxation techniques and essential oils such as lavender, rose, rosemary, and clementine to relieve physical and emotional stress.
